

Project: Digital Multi-Purpose Range Complex (DMPRC)

Location: Fort Stewart, GA

Contract Number:
W912HN-07-C-0015

Client:
US Army Corp of Engineers,
Savannah District

Contact:
Edwina Frayall, USACE Savannah
(912) 652-5987
edwina.s.frayall@sas02.usace.army.mil

Performance Dates:
August 2008 - June 2010

Construction Value:
$35.83 M

Detailed Project Description

All work for the construction of the Digital Multipurpose Range Complex (DMPRC) at Fort Stewart, GA. Site improvements include:

- ◆ Aggregate Service Roads
- ◆ Course Roads
- ◆ Portland Cement Concrete Tank Turning Pads
- ◆ Storm Drainage
- ◆ Training Trenches
- ◆ Stationary and Moving Targetry
- ◆ Earthwork
- ◆ Clearing and Grubbing

Target Construction Includes:

- ◆ Stationary Infantry Targets (SIT)
- ◆ Moving Infantry Targets (MIT)
- ◆ Stationary Armor Targets (SAT)
- ◆ Moving Armor Targets (MAT)
- ◆ Defilades
- ◆ Power Center
- ◆ Range Limit Markers
- ◆ Helicopter Hover Points
- ◆ Camera Towers
- ◆ Training Facades
- ◆ Live Fire Village

Primary Architectural Facilities Include:

- ◆ Range Operation Controls (ROC)
- ◆ After Action Review Building (AAR)
- ◆ Covered Mess
- ◆ Ammunition Loading Dock
- ◆ Well Pump House
- ◆ Latrine (Wet)
- ◆ Concrete Tent Pads

Electrical and Site Utilities

Site electrical includes all secondary power.

Communicational data distribution includes down range to targetry.

Site utilities include all water and sewer to service the administrative area.